RE: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation, In the Matter of Wireless Emergency Alerts; Amendments to Part 11 of the Commission's Rules Regarding the Emergency Alert System, PS Docket No. 15-91

Dear Ms. Dortch,

On August 2, 2017, representatives from T-Mobile USA, Inc.¹ met via conference call with staff members from the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau (PSHSB) to discuss staff member questions about proposals in the pending Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking associated with the above-referenced docket. Attendees at the meeting included: James Wiley, Megan Henry, Linda Nagel, Marcus Brown, Eric Manski and David Mansor of the FCC, as well as, Eric Hagerson, Tim Dunn, Tom Lucht and the undersigned of T-Mobile.

As part of the discussion, the Parties explored the technical feasibility and/or requirements associated with different approaches to geo-targeting, multimedia alerting and multilingual-supported alerting, beyond English and Spanish. In addition, the Parties reviewed technical parameters related to WEA message preservation on mobile handsets.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules, T-Mobile will file a copy of this letter in ECFS. Please contact the undersigned with any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Shellie Blakeney
